Wind storm kills 6 in Delta community

....As erosion sweeps 10-year-old boy away

① UGHELLI—NO fewer than six persons have been killed in Oko Community in Oshimili South Local Government Area of Delta State, following a wind storm that led to the collapse of a building in the area.

The wind, accompanied by a heavy downpour, Wednesday night, also left one other person with serious injuries, while five others sustained minor injuries.

Several trees were also uprooted by the storm.

The injured victim is reportedly receiving treatment at the Asaba Specialist Hospital, while five others with minor injuries have fully recovered.

② Similarly, a 10-year old boy was swept away by erosion in Okotomi area of Okpanam, Oshimili North LGA in the Asaba metropolis during the rain.

The victim it was gathered was returning from the church when his footwear fell into an open drainage being constructed by the state government.

Sources said the deceased in attempt to retrieve the footwear slipped into the drainage.

Confirming incidents, Commissioner for Information, Mr. Charles Aniagwu, said efforts to rescue the 10-year old did not yield fruits.

He also stated that search had been intensified to recover the victim, Aniagwu also confirmed that the Udu Bridge where petroleum laden truck fell off and hung on the cliff on Wednesday had been cordoned off.
