

Troops kill ISWAP terrorists in Borno

HOME NEWS MAY 29 POLITICS METRO BUSINESS SPORTS EDITORIAL COLUMNS ALLURE E-EDITIONS

killed many Islamic State of the West African Province, ISWAP, terrorists, while repelling attacks by the terrorists in the North East of Arege, in Abadam Local Government Area of Borno State.

It was gathered that the ISWAP terrorists made an audacious attempt to infiltrate the advancing troops harbour using a Vehicle-Borne Improvised Explosive Device, VBIED on May 10, 2023.

Sources told our correspondent in Maiduguri, yesterday, that the terrorists encountered fierce resistance, with the troops unleashing heavy firepower and took out the approaching VBIED 300 metres to them.

Related News

Presidential election: Why northern Governors supported Tinubu - Masari

10th NASS: Give S'East something reasonable – Kalu

NNPP CRISIS: Expulsion of Ogun chair illegal, unconstitutional - Aniebonam, party's founder

The information was corroborated by Zagazola Makama, a counter-insurgency expert and security analyst in the Lake Chad region

"The troops with support from the Air Task Force neutralised additional terrorists while others were forced to flee," he said.

The source added that two of the terrorists' vehicles were destroyed and about 10 of them were killed.

MORE TOP STORIES

Masari's Arms Suggestion: Governance of confusion complete, Ohanaeze mocks; it'll create balance of forces — ADF

Presidential election: Why northern Governors supported Tinubu — Masari

Sen Orji Kalu

10th NASS: Give S'East something reasonable — Kalu

NNPP

NNPP CRISIS: Expulsion of Ogun chair illegal, unconstitutional — Aniebonam, party's founder

Disclaimer

Comments expressed here do not reflect the opinions of Vanguard newspapers or any employee thereof.