

METRO

June 13, 2023

Imo APC members travelling to Abuja die in auto crash

It was gathered that the bus they were travelling in had a head-on collision with another bus at Agbor in Delta State.

Several sources told newsmen that three persons in the bus had been confirmed dead, while others who sustained various degrees of injuries were rushed to hospitals.

Two males from the Amaraku community in the Isiala Mbano Local Government Area of the state and a female from the Ogbor community in the same council died in the auto crash.

Related News

Lagos asks Police to probe 2 doctors for alleged organ harvest of 2 teenagers

Subsidy removal: Our priority's to get salary award on June 19 — NLC

Seven UniJos students abducted in Jos

A chieftain of the party, who doesn't want to be mentioned, said that the victims were the coordinators of the senator-elect for Imo North, Patrick Ndubueze, and the House of Representatives member-elect for Okigwe North Federal Constituency, Mirriam Onuoha.

When contacted, the spokesperson for the APC in the state, Cajetan Duke, confirmed the development.

Describing the incident as "sad," the party's spokesperson said that only two persons had been confirmed dead by the party.

MORE TOP STORIES

Tinubu meets NEC, says no excuse for failure

Onyema urges Tinubu to dissolve Nigeria Air

AFCON 2023Q: Guinea Bissau overtake Nigeria in Group A after Sao Tome win

Disclaimer

Comments expressed here do not reflect the opinions of Vanguard newspapers or any employee thereof.