

Car crushes Osun nursing mother to death, groom killed by stray bullet

By Shina Abubakar

Agunbeelewo residents in Olorunda Local Government Area of Osun State were thrown into mourning after a private car crushed a nursing mother to death.

It was gathered that the woman, simply identified as Iyawo Ori-Ade, was on a commercial motorcycle on her way to pay the electricity bill around 3 pm on Friday when a Toyota Camry car crushed the motorcycle.

An eye witness, Wale Oladele, disclosed that the car driver was going to Okini when he lost control of the car and crashed into the oncoming motorcycle.

The woman and the rider sustained severe injuries and were rushed to the Osun State University Teaching Hospital for treatment where she died.

Confirming the incident, the spokesperson for Osun State Police Command, Yemisi Opalola, said: "The passenger died in hospital she was rushed to for treatment. Her corpse was deposited at the mortuary for autopsy. Investigation in progress."
