

Gunmen kill police inspector, cart way gun, beret in Rivers

By Davies Iheamnachor

Gunmen have killed a Police inspector and carted away his rifle and beret in Rivers State.

It was gathered that the incident happened around Oroworukwo-Olu Obasanjo area of Port Harcourt City Local Government Area,

Friday night. A source in the area, who preferred anonymity, disclosed that the said killers were driving in a grey-coloured 2005 Toyota Corolla and had stopped when they sighted the armed policemen.

The source said the killers had shot their target, picked his AK-47 rifle and cap, and immediately drove off to an unknown destination.

Confirming the development, the state's Police Public Relations Officer, PPRO, Grace Iringe-Koko, said the deceased officer was serving in Bayelsa State and had accompanied a 'big man' to Rivers State before the gunmen struck.

Iringe-Koko, a Superintendent of Police, who regretted the development, said investigation had begun to unmask and arrest the killers.
