

Police arrest 'Okada man' in possession of human parts

POLICE detectives in Ondo state, have arrested a motorcyclist, Abdullahi Jose, for allegedly being in possession of human parts.

Abdullahi, reportedly fled the scene after policemen stopped him at Ikare Akoko, area of the state, during a Stop and Search exercise.

Vanguard gathered that the suspect, abandoned his motorcycle on sighting the policemen at the check point.

After he abandoned his motorcycle and fled into the bush, police detectives, during a search discovered some human parts.

Two human hands and other parts were allegedly recovered by the police detectives.

The suspect, was later arrested in Okene, Kogi state, where he fled to by police detectives from the state command, acting on intelligence report.

Contacted, the state police command spokesperson, Funmi Odunlami, confirmed the arrest of the suspect.

Odunlami, said that he was apprehended in Kogi state, with the use of modern technology.

In another development, three persons have been arrested and paraded for passport racketeering.

The suspects, Etaoghere Cyril, Okunika Joy and Adehaka Blessing, were arrested by the officials of the Nigeria Immigration Service, NIS, Ondo State Command Passport Office.

THE HERB
379, Bornu Way
Off Spencer Street

We stock large imported herb ready formula health problem
We also do home and outside L

Phone: 080

B	E	N	U	E		N
A		U		A	B	A
B	O	N	U	S		N
B		A		T	W	O
A	R	V	O	N		N
G		U		O	B	O
E	I	T	E	R	A
	T		E		L	A
I	Z	I	L	I	E	N
S		J		R		K
A	D	E	T	O	N	A
A		B		L		R
C	H	U	K	U	B	A