New Year crash: 2 die, 3 injured on Lagos-Ibadan expressway

By James Ogunnaike

ABEOKUTA—Two persons, yesterday, lost their lives, while three others were injured in an accident that occurred at 8 am around Isara Remo, along the Lagos-Ibadan expressway.

The lone crash, which was blamed on excessive speed, involved a Toyota car with number plate, TTD985AA.

Spokesperson of the Ogun State Sector Command of Federal Road Safety Corps (FRSC), Florence Okpe, who disclosed this in Abeokuta, said the injured victims were taken to Victory Hospital, Ogere while the corpses were deposited at Isara General Hospital morgue.

She said: "The crash occurred at about 0800hrs on Lagos-Ibadan expressway. A total of five persons were involved, which comprised three male children, one male adult and one female adult. Three persons were injured (a female adult, a male adult and a male child). Two people were killed (male children), a vehicle was involved with number plate, TTD985AA, a Toyota car."
