

Man stabbed to death in Ogun for accusing co-tenant of sleeping with his wife

By James Ogunnaike

A shuttle bus driver, Philip Fiamma of Sobande Close, Alagbole, Ajuwon in Ifo local government area of Ogun state has been reportedly stabbed to death after confronting a co-tenant, Ikem Chika Emmanuel over allegation of sleeping with his wife. The sad incident was said to have occurred on Sunday, at about 6:30pm.

On the fateful day, Fiamma was said to have called Emmanuel aside and demanded why he was allegedly sleeping with his wife. This was said to have led to a fight during which Emmanuel stabbed the deceased to death. Fiamma was said to have died while being taken to the hospital within the vicinity while the prime suspect has also fled to an unknown destination.

The spokesperson of Ogun

State Police Command, SP Omolola Odutola confirmed the killing, while speaking to our Correspondent on Friday.

Odutola said "the incident happened on Sunday, January 7th. A landlord from Sobande Close, Alagbole, Ajuwon at around 8pm on that day came to report that one Philip Fiamma, a tenant accused Ikem Chika Emmanuel, another tenant of having sexual intercourse with his wife.

"This was reported to have led to a fight during which Ikem Chika Emmanuel stabbed Fiamma on the chest. The deceased was said to have been confirmed dead in one Tamara Hospital.

"The suspect has escaped to unknown destination and the case has been transferred to the State Criminal Investigation Department, Ogun State Police Command headquarters, Elewera, Abeokuta for discreet investigation. The police is also on the trail of the fleeing suspect".

NSCDC arrests 11 suspected illegal miners in A'ibom

By Chioma Onuegbu, Uyo

THE Nigeria Security and Civil Defence Corps (NSCDC), Akwa Ibom Command says it has arrested 11 miners and impounded three tipper trucks used in carrying out illegal mining activities in Afaha Ikot Osom, Ibesikpo LGA of the State.

for carrying out illegal mining activities in Afaha Ikot Osom, Ibesikpo Asutan LGA to the detriment of the environment.

"Following complaints of severe environmental degradation stemming from mining and excavation activities in the location, on January 10, 2024 we deployed personnel of the corps to the