

Gunmen attack POS operators, kill 2 cops, 2 others in Imo

By Emmanuel
Iheaka

OWERRI—No fewer than four persons were feared dead, yesterday, when gunmen attacked POS operators at Ohii junction, on the Owerri-Orlu Road in the state.

Two of the victims were said to be policemen on duty.

Vanguard gathered that the gunmen stormed the junction in a Toyota Corolla and opened fire. They were said to have robbed POS operators at Orji and Egbu areas of Owerri the same day. The incident led to the busy junction being deserted.

The state Police Public Relations Officer, Henry Okoye, was yet to respond to enquiry at press time.