

17-year-old student stabs foster mother to death in Ondo

Next
Stay

By Dayo Johnson

Akure—A 17-year-old secondary school student, identified as Wunmi, has reportedly stabbed her 54-year-old foster mother, Mrs Funmilayo Adelayi, to death in Oda town, Akure, Ondo State capital.

The senior civil servant victim lived alone with the suspect in a three-bedroom bungalow on Superjet Road, Premier Estate, off Oda Road in the state.

The source said the suspect, already in police custody, was alleged to have mental challenges but had undergone treatment before the ugly incident.

Vanguard gathered that the suspect, who was in SSS2 had her mental challenge became pronounced.

She was later said to have been enrolled in a private school where she murdered the victim.

A neighbour told newsmen: “She was advised to take the treatment she refused perhaps because she felt the treatment she gave her was not working.”

“How can one be living with a person with a mental problem?”
Contacted, the police image maker, Funmi Odunlami, confirmed that police detectives were investigating the motivation behind the murder.

Next

Stay

×

Next
Stay