

How I conspired with my friends to kill Fulani woman for money ritual – Ifa priest

Shina Abubakar, Osogbo

A traditionalist, Onifade Oyekanmi, has narrated how he collaborated with his friends to kill a 45-year-old Fulani woman, Usman Aminat for money ritual. Onifade, popularly called Ife, disclosed that he committed the crime along with four other friends at his Iyana Ajia residence in Ibadan, Oyo State on March 13, 2024.

His accomplices include, Oyebode Olalekan, 40, Ifayemi Ojeleke, 32 and Jamiu Lasisi, 40.

He added that he met the deceased at a marabout place and after exchanging pleasantries she offered to take him to another marabout in Ogbomoso in Oyo State.

READ ALSO: Police summon Fulani, Yoruba communities' leaders over alleged cattle poisoning in Oyo

“The day she took me to Ogbomoso, we were told the marabout had travelled to Kwara State. She later called to inform me she was back and I asked her to come and meet me at my resident in Ibadan.

“She left Apomu to Ibadan and when she came, I and my friends strangled her to death. One of them dismembered her bodies and we used some part of her organs. Her intestine was burnt along with pig and goat’s intestines into powder form.

“We wanted to use her for money ritual but the Muslim cleric that told me about the ritual has not given me the instructions on how to use the powder mixture before we were caught”, he added.