

One killed as fire guts Anambra seminary

In a related development, one person has been reported dead, and several property burnt in a fire that broke out at the Bishop Crowther Memorial Seminary School, Awka, the Anambra State capital.

Although the cause of the fire is yet to be ascertained, it was gathered that the incident occurred around 11.30 pm on Saturday.

Confirming the incident in a statement from the Media Unit of Anambra State Fire Service, the state's Fire Service Chief, Chukwudi Chiketa, said the remains of the student who died in the incident, had been taken to a mortuary.

He explained that firefighters and a fire truck were immediately deployed to the scene of the incident upon getting an alert from the school, adding that the fire had been contained.