

Tension as gunmen kill another man in Ekiti

By Rotimi
Ojomoyela

ADO-EKITI—BARELY nine hours after the killing of a Point of Sales POS agent in Ado-ekiti, the state capital of Ekiti, gunmen again killed a yet-to-be-identified Rice hawker at Bisi market.

The incident, which happened close to the palace of Ewi of Ado-Ekiti, Oba Rufus Aladesanmi, had traders and passers-by running for safety.

The assailants, who came on a motorbike shot and killed the wheel barrow pusher and sped off.

Recall that the gunmen, in the early hours of the day killed a Point of Sales, POS agent popularly known Alfa and carted away naira notes alongside other valuables.

Also, a ticketing officer of Okada riders association was shot dead on Monday in Okesa area, close to the market.

The spate of killings in the state in the last four days has put fear in residents, who called on the state government to as a matter of urgency stop the menace and bring the perpetrators into book.

Confirming the incident, the Public Relations officer of the state's police command, Sunday Abutu said the corpse had been deposited in a morgue while investigation was ongoing to bring the perpetrators to justice.