It was gathered that the four victims after having their meals last night went to bed

it was gathered that the four victims after having their meals last night, went to bed only to die in their sleep.

While confirming the incident, the traditional ruler of the community, HRH, Igwe Felix Ugwu, said that the community was yet to recover from the shock of the incident.

The monarch explained that one of the victims identified as Mama Chijioke Amaeze, had brought her ailing mother into her house and had been taking care of her before the mysterious incident which also claimed her life, that of her mother, her sister and a daughter.

He further said that even though operatives from Nigeria Police Force, Nsukka Police Division had taken the victims to the hospital for autopsy and investigation, the community had resolved to go spiritual to unravel the cause of the incident.

“My community has been restless since this incident happened. We have not witnessed anything like this since the history of this community. We are making efforts to determine what could have led to this tragedy,” the royal father said.
