

Ex-Kaduna Governor, Makarfi loses son in road accident

By Ibrahim Hassan-Wuyo

Son of former Governor of Kaduna State, Faisal Ahmed Mohammed Makarfi, has died in a ghastly road accident on Saturday.

He died while travelling along the Kaduna- Zaria dual carriageway Saturday evening, according to a family source.

Keep Watching

“The accident occurred along the Kaduna-Zaria highway this evening. He was taken to an undisclosed hospital where he was declared dead. His father was at the hospital; his corpse has been conveyed home for burial arrangements ” said the hospital, his corpse has been conveyed home for burial arrangements," said the source.

The deceased was a civil engineer by training and attended Kaduna International School before he proceeded to Adesoye College, Offa, Kwara State for his secondary education. He was at the University of Greenwich, London, for undergraduate and Master's degrees. Until his death, he was a PhD student the Greenwich University.