

4 killed in bloody Makurdi rival cult war

By Peter Duru

MAKURDI—A young man has been reportedly beheaded and three others killed in coldblood in a raging supremacy fight between rival cult gangs in the North Bank area of Makurdi town.

The crisis also led to the razing of the residence of the parents of one of the gang members on Ter Guma Street, North Bank.

A source in the area who spoke on condition of anonymity, said that the crisis which erupted last week led to the killing of three youths and the beheading of one of them.