

Two Female Students of Lokoja Varsity, Kogi Poly Killed in road accident

By Boluwaji Obahopo, Lokoja

---

A female student of the Federal University, Lokoja and another female student from the Kogi State Polytechnic, Lokoja have both lost their lives in a motor accident that occurred in Lokoja on Friday morning.

Vanguard gathered that a heavily loaded articulated vehicle heading for Abuja along Felele axis of the state capital (where the two schools are located) lost control and rammed into a tricycle popularly referred to as Keke NAPEP, that was carrying passengers heading to main town.

The source added that the two female students were in the tricycle along with two other passengers who were seriously injured.

Identification cards of the students revealed their identities.