

Scores feared killed as Anambra security outfit storms criminals den

By Vincent Ujumadu

AWKA— SCORES of people were yesterday feared dead as Anambra State security outfit, (Agunechemba) stormed criminals den, especially gunmen and kidnapers at Enugu Agidi, Njikoka Local Government Area, LGA, of the state. The hoodlums were said to have opened fire on the Agunechemba operatives immediately they arrived their den, but were overpowered by superior power.

One of the criminals was said to have been arrested, while many of them escaped with various degrees of injuries.

It was also gathered that various assorted guns and other items have been recovered.

They include two AK-47 rifles, 8 pump action guns, 4 locally made Pistols, 3 packets of cartridges (101 Cartridges) 4 empty magazines of AK-47 Rifles, 3 cutlasses, one Baofeng Radio, one motorcycle and many charms. The Agunechemba operatives were said to have invaded the criminals' den alongside other security personnel