

figures that organise drug trafficking rings.

Police arrest 3 over beheading farm guard in Delta

By Akpokona Omafuaire

UIGHELLI—POLICE operatives attached to Ovwian Police Division, Delta State, have arrested three persons in connection with the recent beheading of a farm guard in Udu Local Government Area of the state.

Vanguard learnt that fishermen while on fishing trip recovered the head of the poultry farm guard from Erhiephihor community river in Udu council.

Though the report was sketchy, it was learned that the deceased, identified as Omadide Peter, a poultry farm guard, was beheaded and his headless body dumped at Erhiephihor community by unknown assailants.

at 3, Ibukunoluwa Taiwo Close, off LASU

Meanwhile, the police have arrested three persons in connection with the alleged killing and beheading of the victim.

According to sources, Peter, a father of one in his 30s was allegedly killed for praying too much at midnight.

The source said: "Before he relocated from Otu-Jeremi to Ovwodokpokpor, his neighbours complained that they were being disturbed by his prayers and they were tired of his midnight prayers.

Korea for multiple drug trafficking offences in collaboration with his accomplices."

"He recently relocated from Otu-Jeremi to his current place of abode, Ovwodokpokpor before his unfortunate death."

Contacted, Secretary General Erhiephihor, Mr Daniel Omohovwighren said: "The incident did not occur at Erhiephihor but in Ovwodokpokpor and after he was killed, the corpse was dumped in our community, Erhiephihor.

"After the incident, both communities went into action, thank God, they invited the police and the vigilante, they arrested some people, about three of them."

When contacted, the Delta State Police Public Relations Officer, Edafe Bright earlier denied the incident, but later said: 'Confirmed'.