Electrician, 35, electro- cuted while helping tenants restore power

By Esther Onyegbula

A 35-year-old electrician, identified as Bamidele Ayinla, was electrocuted on Tuesday night while attempting to reconnect electricity to a residential building in the Ijegun area of Lagos. It was gathered that the incident, which occurred about 8:20 p.m., was reported by the landlord of the building to the Isheri-Oshun Police Division about 9:49 p.m.

The deceased was allegedly invited by two tenants, to restore power to their apartment after the electricity supply had been disconnected.
