

NEWS

Five dead in Boko Haram attack on Chadian army base

CHAD

🕒 26/05 - 12:22

Four soldiers and a cameraman died on Saturday night from an attack by Boko Haram on the northern shore of Lake Chad.

Members of the terrorist group attacked Chadian army base around one o'clock in the morning killing a soldier. Meanwhile a delegation of the army general staff on the ground, had one of the convoy's vehicles reportedly hit a mine killing two soldiers on the spot, while a third one died a few hours later as a result of his injuries.

Obed Nangbatna, a national television cameraman who was part of the mission also die from a hemorrhage.

YOU MAY ALSO LIKE

Fighting intensifies south of Libyan capital, Tripoli

🕒 25 minutes ago

Comoros swears in president after controversial elections

🕒 35 minutes ago

“ A Boko Haram attack on the northern shore of Lake Chad leaves four soldiers and a Chadian cameraman dead. ”

For several weeks, Boko Haram has been increasing incursions into northern Chad, and seems to have adopted a new modus operandi: the laying of mines on the enemy's path.

Malawi poll aftermath: Injunction, arrests, VP's nullification petition

🕒 55 minutes ago

MOST READ

Malawi polls: A close look at the injunction on results declaration

🕒 5 hours ago

Saudi, Egypt, UAE trips: Sudan junta leaders visit perceived 'meddlers'

🕒 6 hours ago

Somalia arrests, deports ex-head of Ethiopia torture home, Jail Ogaden

🕒 6 hours ago

Share

More About

CHAD

TERRORISM

BOKO HARAM

ON THE SAME SUBJECT

GO TO VIDEO

French interior minister in talks with Alassane

GO TO VIDEO

Somalia's Al Shabaab