

Policeman attacked by okada riders dies in Lagos

Share this post

Okada riders

11th August, 2023

By Moses Omorogieva

The Police Command in Lagos State, on Friday, confirmed the death of an Inspector attached to the Iponri Division, from injury sustained during an attack by persons suspected to be okada riders.

The Police Public Relations Officer in Lagos, SP Benjamin Hundeyin, confirmed the incident to the News Agency of Nigeria (NAN).

Hundeyin said that the Inspector, whose name was not mentioned, was one of the policemen attacked at Ijora Olopa by the assailants on Thursday.

Related News

- Police bust three wanted armed robbery suspects in Lagos
- Lagos police nab suspected serial burglars
- Police confirm death of motorist protesting damage on his car

He said that the officer died at an undisclosed hospital on Friday, where he was rushed to on Thursday after the attack.

The image maker said that the policemen went to the area to implement the Okada restriction law of the Lagos State government when they were attacked.

He said no arrest had been made yet as at press time on Friday evening.

Hundeyin said that they were on the trail of those that carried out the attack.

Tags: Lagos State Police Command Okada riders police Inspector