Mr. Fineboy,

I am honoring your ingnorance because, frankly I empathise with your predicament. I am not doing this as a sport, rather, I am inclined to let you know that at no time from 19993 till date, shell has never expressed their willingness to discontinue their operation from Ogoni. For those who question why shell is still interested or paying particular attention to K-Dere issue, I will ask; if you were in shell's management, would you let them come back to shell's tactics. Did you read in the newspapers that shell admitted forming and funding CAST (Community and Shell Together). As for the chieftaincy dispute in K-Dere, I will ask, which Ogoni village conducts election into the stool of the paramount ruler that anyone would elect to mislead. Mr. Fineboy, we've heard your lamentations and visions. If that is your talent, use it to the benefit of Ogoni in general. If you elect to mislead, Dumka Baabel

Dear Great Ogoni People,

It is most pathetic to hear from quarters in Ogoniland of the present day, that upto NOW.SHELL B.P. facilities are completely held together in one place. Why, do the K.Dere community decided to keep receiving Bonuses of various kind from them all the Years through some Evil men amongst us?Well, that is a pity that may be those that were not part of this ill-decisions could suffer alongside.

MY QUESTION IS, WHY ARE THE PROPERTIES OF SHELL B.P. IN KEGBARA DERE INTACT AND WHO ARE THOSE OGONIS TAKING WICKED DECISIONS REFLECTING ON SHELL'S INTERESTS?

Dear Baabel answer these Questions to assist us differentiate our friends from our enemies.

Have a nice day.

Ogonis, Pls sleep with one Eye widely OPEN, for the Days are Evil.

Thanks,

Yours in the Battlefield,

KUUKU B.Fineboy

11 KILLED, SCORES MISSING IN OGONI

* As Fresh Crisis Erupts Over Oil Firm

FIFTEEN years after the Ogoni crisis which claimed the lives of Ken Saro-Wiwa, and eight of his kinsmen in 1995, following their 1993 uprising,

The Ogoni, mass movement, the Movement for the Survival of the Ogoni People (MOSOP) is openly accusing the Anglo-Dutch super oil and gas major, Shell. The irate Ogoni youths are said to be members of "Community and Shell Togetherness (CAST)".

MOSOP's Information Officer, Bari-ara Kpalap, says members of the group are known militants already declared wanted by the police for multiple killings. The armed Ogoni youths allegedly unleashed mayhem on Kegbara Dere at about 4pm on Tuesday, February 17, 2009 killing one Burabari Friday Paago, and several others. At the moment, the whereabouts of dozens of community persons are unknown. Among the missing persons are Barivure Kuru, Ledisi Siitu, Paul Nbaale. CAST was allegedly formed by Shell in 2006 to silence any perceived opposition to its interests in Ogoni.

MOSOP however, gave the names of the arrowheads of the renewed uprising as Ledee Clinton Zormaol, Batom Namon, Tombari Kuru, Babarina-or Deelo, and others. They allegedly led some 70 other armed youths to shoot indiscriminately into the air and targeting perceived enemies of the oil company in the area. Several women including Mrs. Nmaa Nkua and Madam Leemabari Kpenu, member and Secretary, Kegbara Dere Women's Associations (KEDWA) respectively were killed. Continuing, MOSOP said, "the family house of our president, Mr. Ledum Mitee, was vandalized. Other damaged houses include those of Messrs. Cler...

Adding, the Ogoni group said, 'we consider the unprovoked but influenced violence and killings in the community since September 9, 2008 as grave. 'This is regrettably reminiscent of past similar patterns where the same approach was adopted prior to attacks on Ogoni by induced neighbouring According to them, 'we are pained that since 1993, the Ogoni people have been at the receiving end due to Shell's barbaric and bloody responses. 'MOSOP would warn Shell to leave Ogoni alone since its social license with the people has collapsed irredeemably occasioning the death of the . 'We would like to advice the lawless gang terrorizing, killing and making life difficult for the people of Kegbara Dere to realize that the ult 'Mortgaging your conscience for peanuts against the collective interest of the people would only earn you perpetual slavery and death. We must In the mean time, MOSOP is calling on the security forces in the area to leave no stone unturned in their efforts to apprehend and bring the pe. Efforts to get the Commissioner of Police, Rivers State command, Mr. Bala Hassan, for comments did not pay off, as a male voice on his cell phone. Similarly, the Spokesperson for the command, Mrs. Rita Inoma-Abbey, a Deputy Superintendent of Police (DSP) was said to be 'too busy' to attend. Meanwhile, there is an air of uncertainty in Ogoni at the moment as no one knows what will happen next. Shell officials in Port Harcourt who said. A concerned company official who did not want his name in print, however, told our correspondent, 'i am not convinced that Shell will do what it
